TOP PRIORITY

CIRCULAR

With the approval of the competent authority, all privately managed schools in the province of Sindh are hereby directed to relax their uniform policy in light of the ongoing winter season.

To ensure the health, comfort, and well-being of students during this period, schools are instructed to allow students to wear any suitable winter clothing, including sweaters, blazers, coats, jackets, caps, socks, and shoes, as needed. This relaxation of the uniform policy will remain in effect throughout the current winter season.

All school administrations are instructed to implement the policy in its true spirit, ensuring that no restrictions are placed on winter attire during this period. This will allow students to stay warm and protected from the cold.
